Wishing you the Blessing of Easter!

Dear Elizabeth,

Read all the letters you sent and I'll make two copies - one for Betty Magner and I think Laura Jones in Boston would like to see it too.

That was interesting seeing the information on great grandmother being a "run-a-way". We can never understand how hard that generation had to find food and a place to live.

Before we left Fernbrook, one day I was looking at the Larson Bible and wondering who to give it to, Mother came in and sat down and looking at the first page of their family births - she took it out and put it in the old coal stove fire. I often wondered what was on it that she didn't want the rest of the family to see.

Reading James A Michener's book called The Novel. All about the Dutch in Reading & Allentown and the way they talked, their farms and fun.

When I call Raymond, I'll ask if they got the Toothbrush Holder.

Saw a TV short film on your Sedona - they said it was a healthy place to live.

Best Wishes
Mary Jones
